An Important Way You Can Help
Us
Promote This Work

The publisher of our new book Reclaiming Vitality and Presence suggests that an effective and easy way to get people interested in Sensory Awareness is to get its friends to write short reviews about the book on Amazon.com. The internet and this book are powerful tools that can help us attract new people to the work. Anyone who has purchased a book through Amazon is allowed to write reviews on Amazon’s website of any book they sell. Many people “surfing” through Amazon’s website base their decisions to buy on the reader reviews they see. Perhaps you have done so yourself.

At last check we had no such reviews written on their website. To see a sample of what such a review might look like go to the Amazon.com review for our other book Waking Up. Can you help?

Another great way to help promote the book (as well as the work and the Foundation) is for Sensory Awareness leaders to offer book readings in book stores or other settings. A great example is Mary Connelly’s report on page 5 of this Newsletter. Such book readings lead naturally into sensing experiments which can only help to deepen peoples’ appreciation.

Please note: We occasionally share our mailing list with Sensory Awareness Leaders Guild members who offer Sensory Awareness workshops but with no other organizations or individuals. Please let us know if you do not want us to share your address at all.
